

John D. Fanburg and Charles X. Gormally selected for NJBIZ Power 50 in Law List

7/26/2023

Brach Eichler LLC is delighted to announce that John D. Fanburg, Esq., Managing Member, Chair of the Healthcare Law Practice, and Co-Chair of the Cannabis Practice, along with Charles X. Gormally, Esq., Member and Co-Chair of the Cannabis Practice, were recognized by NJBIZ Power 50 in Law. The list recognizes forward-thinking leaders across the state who are impacting the legal industry in a positive way.

John has been hailed as the go-to attorney on healthcare issues in the state and for his many accomplishments, including providing a wide range of healthcare organizations and providers with strategic legal guidance responding to the legal challenges and opportunities of the rapidly changing American healthcare system.

Charles is a certified civil trial attorney focusing on representing clients with complex business matters, confidential corporate compliance investigations, challenges caused by government regulations, contract disputes, and tort actions. In addition to being senior trial counsel at Brach Eichler, Gormally is the founding chair of the litigation practice group, as well as a member of the employment services practice group.

The Power 50 in Law list is compiled by the NJBIZ editorial staff based on their reporting throughout the past year with input from experts in a variety of fields and recommendations from their readers. The staff looks for people who have gained public attention – and perhaps acclaim – for their professional accomplishments and public service. Each list identifies individuals who, through their efforts, are helping to make New Jersey a better place to live, work and do business.

Congratulations to John and Charles on these well-deserved recognitions!
