Proposed Legislation Would Mandate Medicaid Coverage for Ovulation Enhancing Drugs and Infertility Treatment

5/30/2023

Senate Bill 3733, introduced in the New Jersey Senate and General Assembly on March 20, 2023, would require Medicaid to cover the cost of medically necessary ovulation-enhancing drugs and associated medical services for individuals aged 21 to 44 experiencing infertility, subject to federal financial participation. Coverage for ovulation-enhancing drugs and medical services would be limited to three treatment cycles per beneficiary's lifetime.
