

Seton Hall Law Awards 1st Brach Eichler LLC Health Law Scholarship

The Brach Eichler LLC Health Law Scholarship
Established in 2017

Leaders in health care representation, the attorneys at Brach Eichler serve individuals and entities from every corner of the health care industry. The firm's knowledge across a wide spectrum of issues, including contract negotiations; business sales, purchases, and other alliances; Medicare and other reimbursement issues; corporate and regulatory compliance; and other matters helps the firm's clients successfully negotiate today's complex health care environment. The attorneys at Brach Eichler are trusted advisors, working closely with health care providers to address the myriad legal and business issues that arise in the delivery of health care. The firm is known for innovation, flexibility, and a focus on practical solutions. The Chambers USA Guide to America's Leading Lawyers for Business acknowledges Brach Eichler as having one of the leading health care law practices in New Jersey. John D. Fanburg is Managing Member of the firm and Chair of the Health Law Practice Group. Brach Eichler LLC is committed to being an active and supportive member of the local communities in which their employees live and work. The Brach Eichler LLC Health Law Scholarship reflects that commitment.

Lani M. Dornfeld is a Member in the Firm's Health Law Practice Group. She is head of the Firm's Palm Beach, Florida office and frequently travels between the Palm Beach and Roseland locations to meet the needs of her clients in both states. Lani focuses much of her practice on handling regulatory, corporate, and transactional matters for her clients. She represents a variety of health care providers, including hospitals, long-term care facilities, home health agencies, hospices, physician and dental groups, and physicians, dentists, and other individual health care practitioners. Lani received her B.A. from Rutgers University and J.D. from Seton Hall University School of Law in 1999. As an alumna, she is proud to personally supplement the Brach Eichler LLC Law Scholarship.
