REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

Each matter handled by John depends on its unique facts and particular legal circumstances. The following are a list of results obtained by John on behalf of his clients:

- Represented the owners of large multi-specialty ambulatory surgery center in the sale of a majority ownership to a large private-equity backed operator of healthcare facilities and provider of healthcare facility management services.
- Represented a prominent regional hospital system in its $100 Million acquisition of another healthcare system
- Represented an ophthalmology ASC and related medical practice in a $30 Million sale to a private equity firm.
- Represented a gastroenterology practice in a $17 Million hospital joint venture with private equity backing.
- Represented an orthopedics and sports medicine practice in the $20 Million sale of its practice to a large health system and the employment of its physicians.
- Represented an ASC in the $12 Million sale of majority equity stake to a hospital acquiror.
- Establishment of single specialty medical practice comprising over 100 physicians.
- Represented the seller entity in a stock sale acquisition by a private equity sponsored medical and management (administrative services organization, or ASO) supergroup, which maintains practices throughout various states. The physician-owners of the seller-entity have become employees and equity holders in the buyer since the start of this deal.
- As a result of legislative changes in New Jersey, all registered ambulatory surgical practices must adhere to specific regulations and complete an application in order to become licensed by the New Jersey Department of Health. Brach Eichler represents these entities and assists with all aspects of the licensure.
- Due to Brach Eichler’s extensive experience in healthcare and strategic planning, the firm was engaged by several medical practices to counsel on the creation of Management Service Organizations to help position them for private equity transactions.
